

Karen Bleil

Karen Bleil has been a resident of Fort Bend County for 15 years and currently lives in Richmond with her husband. She comes from a long line of Fort Bend County decedents including her maternal grandfather, George Grant Roane, who held several positions with the county and her father, Bert Bleil, who served on the county Historical Commission. She is a member of the Fort Bend County Museum docents and has served on Richmond City Charter Commission.