

Cindy Drabek

Cindy Drabek was born right here in Richmond, was raised here, and is raising her family here, too. As chair of the Richmond Historical Commission, her commitment remains strong to maintaining the proud heritage established by our ancestors. As a local business owner, a mom, a board member and volunteer in her community, Ms. Drabek leads this commission with passion to preserve our historical landmarks for our future generations.